

---

William H. Roberts Jr.

Assistant Deputy Commandant for Programs and Resources (Resources) Headquarters Marine Corps

Mr. William H. Roberts Jr. is a member of the Senior Executive Service, serving as the Assistant Deputy Commandant for Program and Resources (Resources), (ADC P&R(R)), Headquarters Marine Corps, Pentagon. He serves as the Senior Resource Advisor to the Deputy Commandant for Programs and Resources (DC P&R).

Mr. Roberts responsibilities includes but not limited to the assessment of resource needs; development and justification of the resource input to the Marine Corps Budget; evaluation of Marine Corps-wide budget execution; identification of resources for redistribution; formulation of policies and procedures for the effective control of all financial operations, to include finance and audit oversight; plans and directs the implementation of the Marine Corps financial system; supervises and oversees the Technology Services Organization; and acting with the DC P&R as designated representative of the CMC to external authorities for resource issues.

Prior to becoming the Assistant Deputy Commandant of P&R(R), Mr. Roberts served as the primary advisor to the Director, Army National Guard on all fiscal matters and was responsible for all ARNG programming, budgeting, and execution of more than $16 billion in resources annually. Additionally, Mr. Roberts oversaw all ARNG equipping and modernization efforts ranging from mission command systems to weapons platforms.

As the ARNG's Chief Financial Officer (CFO) and senior civilian, he provided oversight to more than 3,000 financial professionals in the 54 States, territories and the District of Columbia. He was also responsible for attaining and distributing the necessary financial resources for the 336,000 Army National Guard personnel to meet, or exceed, operational readiness requirements.

Prior to his position as the CFO of the Army Nation Guard, Mr. Roberts served as the Director of Accountability and Audit Readiness, Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Army, Financial Management and Comptroller. In this capacity, he was responsible for integration of Army policies, programs, systems, and procedures designed to develop, improve and maintain the Army's financial accountability, ability to produce auditable financial statements and internal management control programs.

Mr. Roberts was appointed to the Senior Executive Service on 19 March 2017. He has a Bachelor's Degree in Accounting from Hampton University and a Master's in Business Administration from Johns Hopkins University. Mr. Roberts has over 20 years of experience in creating highly successful financial and operational strategies, providing leadership in creating dynamic, highly motivated, efficient, and customer-centric organizations within the public and private sector.